Testerday morning a northbound freight train on the Mexican Central was wrecked at Terrazas, south of Juanes. Twenty-four cars and the locomotive went into the ditch. It is believed the accident was due to soft track since the country in that vicinity has been visited by tremendous rains during the past few days. At Juarez last night it was said no reports had been received of the death or injury of any of the past result in the past few days.

Bull Fight To Be Held. Notwithstanding the decree of Carensa forbidding bull fights throughout exico, Juarez will hold a bull fight today. The affair, which is to be given for the benefit of the poor of the plague

SPEISER'S SCALP

A noted scalp specialist, speaking of the prevalence of dandruff and similar manifestations of an unhealthy scalp, recommends first of all that hair brushes, combs, etc., be kept perfectly clean. The daily use of Speiser's Scalp Tonic is strongly urged, as it prevents the drying of the scalp, the primary cause of dandruff, itching, etc.

The use of soaps or any other preparation which contains alkalis, must be strictly avoided. Alkalis have a tendency to dry the scalp, which only makes matters worse. Cocoanut oil and all foaming solutions should not be used. Speiser's Scalp Tonic corrects me no good. Finally I get hold of some-thing that quickly and completely cured me. Washingtonians March to Union Station and Take Special Trains to Baltimore.

(Continued from First Page,) will be no buds, owing to an ordinance in Baltimore prohibiting their playing in public on Sunday. But the marchers will sing the mattenal anthem and church hymns.

The societies will mark in platoons, eight abreast, with a distance between each line equal to the line in front.

Parades Form in Street.

Immediately after the late masses it Catholic churches this morning the divisions began to form in Washing-ton streets for their march to the Union ton streets for their march to the Union Station, here,
The first division, of which Francis P. Cleary is marshal, formed in North Capitol street, with the head of the column resting at F street northwest. In this section were St. Martin's, St. Dominic's, Soldiers' Home, St. Matthew's, St. Stephen's, St. Asnn's, Holy Comforter, St. Joseph's, Immaculate Conception, St. Mary's, and St. Paul's, all of this city, and St. Mary's, of Alexandria. With Edwin'P. Goodwin as marshal, the second division formed on F street northwest, with the head of the column resting at North Capital street. In this section were societies from the Holy Trinity, St. Vincent de Paul, St. Anthony's, Holy Rosary, Sacred Heart, St. Margaret's Seat Pleasant, Md), St. Mathas, Holy Name, St. Peter's St.

Jerome's, Church of Nativity, St. Thomas, and St. Tereso's.

Third Division.

In the third division was the Third Sunday Brigade of St. Aloysius' Church, which made up this entire division. It formed on I street, lining up west from formed on I street, lining up west from North Capitol street. Thomas B. Mc-Namee was this section's marshal.

The fourth division formed on E street northwest, beginning its line at North Capitol street, and in the division were societies from Bt. Augustine's, Church of the Incarnation, and St. Cyprian's.

The first two sections marched to Union Station first, entraining at 18:30 o'clock and the remaining two arrived at 12:45 o'clock. None of the sections started until al were filled.

The sections were due in Baltimore not later than 2:30 o'clock.

There, at Mt. Royal Station, they were to form in line immediately, ready to march off at the head of the parade. One of the prettient features of the march will be the deposit of the red carnations at the foot of the reviewing stand where will stand Cardinal Gibbooms.

Behind Captain Walsh. Immediately behind Capt. Harry Walsh and his color bearers will be John Hadley Doyle and his staff. Mr. Doyle's staff is composed of prominent Catholic laymen, nearly 200 in number, who wore silk hats, frock coats, gray-striped trousers, gray ties, and carried walking sticks Michael D. Schaefer was chief of staff, and Frank J. Mresnahan the principal aide.
